Verse 1

E A7 E A7
I was in love with your beauty from the day you walked my way
E A7 E B7 E
Oh how I wish that was enough to have made me want to stay
(E) A7 E A7
See I'm as true as I try to be, and I must say my girl
E A7 E B7 E
I tried the best to give to you all of the truest in the world
(E) A7 E A7
But when I left your house that morning in that ragged thunderbird
E A7 E B7 E
I tried so hard to fight the voices from the devils that I heard
(E) A7 E A7
See there's a highway to the right of us I took a year ago
E A7 E B7 E
and since a year ago can't drive past, without turning down that road

Chorus

G C
And I--- knew it. I never should have turned the wheel
(I--- knew it) (I knew it)
G C
And I--- knew it. The voices calling me weren't real
(I--- knew it) (I knew it)
G C
I--- knew it. Listen the song they sing
(I-- knew it) (Oh, I knew it)
G C G (G) C G
I--- knew I was wrong, and I--- knew I was wrong
(Yes I did!)

Interlude

Verse 2

So give me a try at describing just how difficult it is when you kinda love two girls to figure out which one you miss
Stumble away from your stairway with your perfume on my clothes
Well I kinda loved two girls but now I've kinda lost 'em both

Chorus

And I--- knew it. I never should have turned the wheel
(I--- knew it) (I knew it)
And I--- knew it. The voices calling me weren't real
(I--- knew it) (I knew it now)
I--- knew it. Listen the song they sing
(I-- knew it) (Oh, I knew it)
I--- knew I was wrong, and I--- knew I was wrong
(Yes I did!)

Verse 3

And if I could | gather | up the | damage that I've | rendered in my...life
Place it | on a scale | and weigh | against the | damage done that night
Then it'd be | safe to say | the weight | of all I | did and didn't do
Would surely | float against | the | lightest wrong | I ever did to you
