Verse 1

```
      D          A7          (A7)          D
I dreamt of a suit, a suit so fine I dressed my words in
(D)          A7          (A7)          D
sewn and tailor made with song in mind, made of melody
(D)          A7          (A7)          D
stitched by threads of notes, with perfect pitch, perfectly composed
(D)          A7          (A7)          D
sound in tune and key, a coat of rhythm and harmony

Interlude

      D          A7          (A7)          D
But when I awoke, my coat was worn and my words were plain
(D)          A7          (A7)          D
Each song that I sang, all the notes were wrong and poorly played
(D)          A7          (A7)          D
Both my sleeves had holes, my knees were patched, my shoes needed soles
(D)          A7          (A7)          D
No clever disguise, no way to hide my offensive tone

Interlude

      D          A7          D          A7          D

Verse 3

D A7 (A7) D
But I, I wish for you more than I can give, than I can do
(D) A7 (A7) D
Yeah you, you deserve the best, an anthem not my hand-me-down tune
(D) A7 (A7) D
Yeah you, you deserve the best, an anthem not my hand-me-down tune

Outro
