

In Your Light

Darling

Capo II (key of A)

Intro

D

Verse 1

G D
In your light, girl, in your light
Bm E
in your light, girl, in your light
G D
I could turn into a window sill
G D
a daffodil or caterpillar
G D
in your light

Verse 2

G D
In your room, girl, in your room
Bm E
In your room, girl, in your room
G D
I could face all of my memories
G D
and tell them not to bother me
G D
in your room

Chorus

C G
I could be anything
C G D
I could be almost anything

Verse 3

G D
In your town, girl, in your town
Bm E
in your town, girl, in your town
G D
when your neighborhood says, Who are you?
G D
I tell 'em I ain't no stranger, I ain't just passin' through G D
your town

Verse 4

I walk your lane, girl, I walk your lane
I walk your lane, girl, I walk your lane
with a handful of dandelions and a belly full of apple wine
on your lane

Bridge (Instrumental)

C | G | C | G | C | G | C | G | D+

Verse 5

In your arms, girl, in your arms
in your arms, girl, in your arms
I could change my name to harmony
then change it back to misery
in your arms

Verse 6

And in your life girl, in your life
in your life girl, in your life
I could be the one you love the best forsake your past and love me for the rest of your life

Chorus

I could be anything
I could be almost anything

Tabulature

This approximates the lick at the end of each verse. Not sure on the B and E strings. Similar but long lick is played after the chorus/bridge, with emphasis on the 0h2 on the G string.
