Verse 1

```
      G      D      G
I've never taken this curve
(G)      D      G
driving this fast before
      (G)      D      G      C
A glowing stop sign but both lanes are mine
      G      D      G
no seat belts attached to my door
```

Interlude A

```
      G      D      G
Well my speed meter don't work
      (G)      D      G
so I'm gonna guess ninety-five
      (G)      D      G      C
Well maybe I'll fix it, and maybe I won't
      G      D      G
it depends on my being alive
```

Interlude B

 6 & 1 2 3 & 4 5 6 & 1 2 3 4 5 6 & 1 2 3 & 4 5 6 & 1 2 3 4 5

```

      G      D      G
Well my bottle of bourbon is gone
      (G)      D      G
It flew away all by itself
      (G)      D      G      C
So if ever you find it, my photo behind it
      G      D      G
in memory of me on your shelf
```

Interlude A

Verse 4

Well it's been raining all day and its been raining all night
A slip and slide highway and I'm moving sideways
I'm loose but my steering wheel's tight

Interlude B

Verse 5

Well my sixty-three Ford is a bull
She's four thousand pounds at least
But metal surrenders when oak trees meet fenders and engines go through the front seat

Interlude B

Verse 6

Well I lost control in the curve and a gas line broke in the wreck
I walked from the ashes with just a few scratches my crucifix warm on my neck (one more)

Verse 7

Well my good Lord was with me tonight
just riding beside me tonight
And now we're just talking, hitchhiking, walking
We'll see you in Concord tonight
Yeah now we're just walking, we're hitchhiking, talking
We'll see you--- in Concord--- tonight---
