Verse 1 (SCOTT)

She was an actress and a dancer G
of perfect build and careful lines C
I worked the scene to my advantage Am blackmailed her into being mine D7

Chorus (SCOTT)

And late in life I left the family G
too old to be considered brave C
too young to make a good decision Am
so frozen in my tracks I stayed D7

Interlude

G | G | C | C | Am | Am | D7 | D7

Verse 2 (SCOTT)

And in my dreams I saw the future G as clear as master locks and chains C
that tied the locals to their podiums Am
as they would scream, We think you've changed! (We know you've changed!) D

Chorus (SCOTT)

And late in life I left the family G
too old to be considered brave C
too young to make a good decision Am
so frozen in my tracks I stayed D7

Verse 3 (SETH)

And just the same as I met her G
man, I knew when it was over C
she was running out the back door Am
I was running out the side D7

Verse 4 (SETH)

And you know I've got to wonder G
Lord if ever I will see her C
Oh, maybe when we're older Am
Oh, maybe when we die D7

Interlude (Harmonica Solo)

G | G | C | C | Am | Am | D7 | D7

Chorus (SCOTT)

And late in life I left the family G
too old to be considered brave C
too young to make a good decision Am
so frozen in my tracks I stayed D7
And late in life I left the family G
too old to be considered brave C
too young to make a good decision Am
so frozen in my tracks I stayed D7 | D7 | G
