Verse 1 (SCOTT)

G

She was an actress and a dancer

of perfect build and careful lines

Am

I worked the scene to my advantage

D7

blackmailed her into being mine

Chorus (SCOTT)

And late in life I left the family

too old to be considered brave

Am

too young to make a good decision

D7

so frozen in my tracks I stayed

Interlude

G | G | C | C | Am | Am | D7 | D7

Verse 2 (SCOTT)

G

And in my dreams I saw the future

as clear as master locks and chains

Am

that tied the locals to their podiums

as they would scream, We think you've changed! (We know you've changed!)

Chorus (SCOTT)

And late in life I left the family G
too old to be considered brave C
too young to make a good decision Am
so frozen in my tracks I stayed D7

Verse 3 (SETH)

And just the same as I met her G
man, I knew when it was over C
she was running out the back door Am
I was running out the side D7

Verse 4 (SETH)

And you know I've got to wonder G
Lord if ever I will see her C
Oh, maybe when we're older Am
Oh, maybe when we die D7

Interlude (Harmonica Solo)

G | G | C | C | Am | Am | D7 | D7

Chorus (SCOTT)

And late in life I left the family G
too old to be considered brave C
too young to make a good decision Am
so frozen in my tracks I stayed D7
And late in life I left the family G
too old to be considered brave C
too young to make a good decision Am
so frozen in my tracks I stayed D7 | D7 | G
