Verse 1
I lay here pretending to sleep someone's always asking for something of me
                                                 Em
 I try to hide but I'm stripped of my strength bound by the truth, bored by the speed and the promise of the fortune it brings Oh mama, I just don't believe
Verse 2
 Like it happened in a Broadway scene are we still acting, is this the real you and me
                                                      Em
The words don't flow, but my heart it
                        C bound by the love, the warmth that it brings and a promise to fix everything
Oh mama, I just don't believe
Chorus
       Bm
                      G
Angel wings tied to memories
              Em Bm
they'll never fly for you and I Bm
Angel wings tied to melodies
              Em
                    Am
they'll never sing for you and me

Verse 3
                             Em
A young man whose soul was burnin' the hands of the people guiding him on He was moving along, mama he was cookin' but the calendar won, his earnings are gone and the fortune that this young man sought Oh mama, I don't believe in it at all
Chorus
       Bm
Angel wings tied to memories
              Em Bm
they'll never fly for you and I Bm
                     G
Angel wings tied to melodies
                 Am
              Em
they'll never sing for you and me
           Em Am
For you and me, they'll never sing
              Em
They'll never sing (They'll never sing)
Oh mama, I just don't believe
Oh mama, I just don't believe

Oh mama, I just don't believe
