Verse 1

C G Am G F G C C/B
And If I weren't leaving, would I catch you dreamin'?

C G Am G F G C C/B
And if I weren't gonna be gone now, could I take you home?

C G Am G F G C C/B
And if I told you I loved you, would it change what you see?

C G Am G F G C C/B | C | C/B
And if I was staying, would you stay with me

Verse 2

C G Am G F G C C/B
And if I had money, would it all look good?

C G Am G F G C C/B
And if I had a job now, like a good man should?

C G Am G F G C C/B
And if I came to you tomorrow, and said let's run a- way

C G Am G F G C C/B | C | C/B
would you roll like the wind does, ba- by, would you stay?

Verse 3

C G Am G F G C C/B
My heart is dancing, to a November tune

C G Am G F G C C/B
and I hope that you hear it, singing songs about you

C G Am G F G C C/B
I sing songs of sorrow, because you're not a- round

C G Am G F G C C/B | C | C/B
See, babe, I'm gone tomorrow -- ba- by, follow me down

Verse 4

C G Am G F G C C/B
And I don't know why I have to, but this man must move on

C G Am G F G C C/B
I love my time here, didn't know 'til I was gone

C G Am G F G C C/B
November shadow, shade November change

C G Am G F G C C/B
November spells sweet memory, the sea-son blue re-mains

C G Am G F G C C/B
November spells sweet memory, the sea-son blue re-mains

Verse 5

C G Am G F G C
Your yellow hair is like the sunlight, howev- er sweet it shines

C G Am G F G C
Bit by the cold of December, I'm warm in-side your smile

C G Am G F G C C/B
Oh lady, tell me I'm not leaving, you're eve-ry-thing I dream

C G Am G F G C C/B
I'm killing myself thinking, I'm fal-lin' like the leaves

C G Am G F G C
I'm killing myself thinking, I'm fal-lin' like the leaves
