

Please Pardon Yourself

The Avett Brothers

Capo II

Intro

G | C G | G C | G

Verse 1 (Scott)

As I turn my head to your side of the bed
Why are you wake? What's on your mind?
To this awful news try not to hold on
The day will come, the sun will rise, and we'll be fine

Verse 2 (Scott)

As long as I feel, as strong as I feel
I will carry you as long as I can
As hard on yourself, please pardon yourself
Do the best you can and that won't go unseen

Verse 3 (Scott)

How do I know when it's time to stop?
Runnin' from the things I do, being things I'm not
Oh I have tried, but I just changed my mind
Every night befalls every morning light

Verse 4 (Scott)g

How do I know that you will never stop?
Knowin' me, and trustin' me, and lovin' me a lot
Oh I have tried, but I just changed my mind
Every night befalls every morning light
