

Pretty Girl from Matthews

The Avett Brothers

No Capo. Harmony

Verse 1

G C
Hold on a minute, it ain't time to leave
G
Tell me how you're feeling one more time
C
Four long years, and I just can't believe
G
That I'm still yours and you're still mine
C
While I was gone, yes I fell in love
G
Asked around and heard that you did too
C
Two drunken years, and push came to shove
G
I met love, love left me blue

Chorus

Bm C G
You're rising like the sun
Bm C G
That pulled the curtain on the night
D C
Coming through the window
G F C
To brighten up my life

Verse 2

G C
And I'm all right, yeah, I think I'm fine
G
My savior lives in telephones
C
And I just dream of you, and step outside
G
Dial up and hope that you're home

Chorus

Bm C G
You're rising like the sun
Bm C G
That waits up all night
D C
Coming through the window
G F C G
To brighten up my life--

Verse 3

G Hold on a minute, yeah, I C do love you
G Sometimes I guess that ain't enough
C When you come round yeah you pull me through
G And I thank you, oh, so much
C Another year, maybe, three or four
G Maybe five or six, or even more
C You'll find another man to take my place
G And I'll see you on the good Lord's shores
 Chorus
Bm C You're rising like the sun G
Bm C That pulled the curtain on the night G
D C Coming through the window
G F C To brighten up my life
